

After School Adventures at the Riverside Municipal Museum

Every Wednesday, 3:00-4:30PM

The Hopi: People of the Mesas

April 2005

April 6 People of the Mesas

Do you know who the People of the Mesas are? Discover all things Hopi as we explore the Museum's new exhibition, The Hopi: People of the Mesas. Learn what mesas are and explore how Hopi people lived in the past and how they live today.

April 13 Kachinas of the Mesas

What are Hopi Kachinas? How are they made? Answer these questions and more as you learn the meanings behind Hopi Kachinas through an afternoon of hands-on fun at the Museum.

April 20 Plants of the Mesas

Explore Hopi culture through plants. Learn the story of the Three Sisters and how they help the Hopi people. Discover how plants help the Hopi to make beautiful baskets and kachinas.

April 27 Life of the Mesas

Learn about the three mesas of the Hopi people. Explore the pottery and basketry made by the Hopi in the three mesas and learn how this is important to Hopi life. Piece together pottery as you discover the work of an archaeologist.

After School Adventures are every Wednesday from 3:00-4:30 p.m.

After School Adventures are designed for students in grades K-5. All after school programs are free, and no reservations are needed. A new program begins every 30 minutes. A parent must accompany children at all times. Large groups are encouraged to call the Museum at (951) 826-5273 prior to attending After School Adventures. After School Adventures are a great supplement to classroom and homeschool curriculum.
